Oshino Ninja Village

Watch a ninja show at a ninja village. Also recommended are the Japanese gardens where nature can be enjoyed throughout the four seasons and foods made with local ingredients.

Next Station:
(Bus) Oshino Ninja Village

Fujiyama Onsen

With an area over 330m², it is Japan’s largest wooden bathhouse! The onsen (hot spring) uses vanadium natural water unique to Mt. Fuji, containing about twice as much vanadium than commercially sold mineral water!

Next Station:
(Bus) Fujigoko Highland

Mt. Fuji PANORAMIC ROPEWAY

★ Show pass for free ride

The ropeway takes passengers to one of the best scenic spots offering a complete view of Lake Kawaguchi and Mt. Fuji. Enjoy a spectacular view while relaxing with dango (Japanese sweetmeats), a local specialty.

Next Station:
(Bus) Pleasure Cruiser / Ropeway Exit

Shibazakura Festival
(Moss Pink)

The sight of shibazakura (moss pink) in bloom, more than anywhere else in the Greater Tokyo region, is a must-see. The color contrast makes the view of Mt. Fuji even more beautiful.

Next Station:
(Bus) Shibazakura Festival
*Operate only during the festival

A little detour / Visit these places too!

Kofu City Center

There are many attractions near the station, such as Kofu Castle (Matsuzaki Castle), offering views of Mt. Fuji, a retro onsen district, and commercial facilities. Located near JR Kofu Sta., it is a recommended spot for Japan Rail Pass holders.

Next Station:
(Bus) Kofu Sta., South Gate, North Gate

Grinpa ★ Show pass for free entry

An amusement park located at the foot of Mt. Fuji. This is the only place where visitors can see the base of Mt. Fuji from a Ferror wheel. The scenery during this season is magnificent.

Next Station:
(Bus) Grinpa

Gotemba Premium Outlets

This Japanese flagship store of Premium Outlets stands on vast premises with views of Mt. Fuji, a World Cultural Heritage site, and has the largest shop area in Japan.

Next Station:
(Bus) Gotemba Premium Outlets
Fugaka Fuketsu (Wind Cave) / Naruwa Hyoketsu (Ice Cave)

Show pass for free entry
A cave made of the lava of Mt. Fuji. The temperature inside the cave is pleasantly cool at around 13°C even in mid-summer! The pit type ice cave is full of stalactites, providing visitors with an adventurous experience! The large wind cave is naturally windy sloping, allowing both the elderly and children to enjoy as well.

[Bus] Fugaka Fuketsu / Naruwa Hyoketsu

Saiko Iyashi-no-Sato Nenba

This area was once known as Japan’s most beautiful settlement of thatched-roof houses. See firsthand a nostalgic Japanese landscape in the 21st century. Visitors can also enjoy interacting with the locals.

[Bus] Saiko Iyashi-no-Sato Nenba

Fuji-Q Highland

Show pass for 1 free ride
There is an assortment of rollercoasters that hold Guinness World Records. This summer, a new area themed on the popular anime “Naruto” will open. This fun amusement park has something enjoyable for everyone, including those who dislike thrill rides.

[Bus, Train] Fuji-Q Highland

Hana-no-Miyako Park

Seasonal flowers fill the 300,000m² premises. The brilliant colors and rich nature will ensure your holiday at the blossoms. The park also offers a water amusement area during the summer.

[Van] Hana-no-Miyako Park

Mt. Fuji 5th Station (Fuji-Subaru Line 5th Sta.)

Mt. Fuji 5th Station is synonymous with the starting point for climbing Mt. Fuji. Located at an altitude of 2,365m, it feels chilly even in mid-summer. It is also a recommended spot for a stroll and a view of a sea of clouds.

[Van] Mt. Fuji 5th Station

Fruit Picking

Funaki City close to Kofu Sta. has earned the title of “The Number One Location in Japan for Peaches and Grapes” and is a leading fruit producer in Yamanashi. High quality delicious fruits, such as strawberries, peach, grapes, and apple, can be eaten all year round.

[Van] Funaki Station / Funaki-no-sato

Shiraito-no-Taki Waterfall

Measuring 20m in height and 290m in width, this waterfall has the largest width in Japan. It is a beautiful sight featuring many waterfalls that look like strands of white silk thread (shiraito).

[Van] Shiraito-no-Taki Station / Shiraito-no-Taki
